GILROY, Dec. 8.—Shortly after noon to-day Uvas creek, one mile east of town, overflowed and ran into Gilroy. The southern end of the city is covered with water, which is in some places, three feet deep. It is still rising, necessitating peo-ple removing their furniture, etc., from their houses. Several barns and many fences have been washed away. The damage cannot be estimated at present, but will probably reach several thous-and dollars. Rain tell heavily all day, and the business portion of the town is in danger of being flooded. Storekeepers are packing their goods upon shelves.

this morning a trunk, the lock of which had been broken, was found floating in the bay near this city. A number of papers were found in it, the other con-tents, if any, having disappeared. From information received from Chief of Police Savidge the trunk probably belonged to James N. Ashe, who formerly worked in the Partisan office in this city and who left for Buckley some weeks ago. A badge found in the trunk shows that Mr. Ashe was a member of Typographical Union No. 1. How the trunk came to be found in the bay is a mystery which time will probably uuravel. There was a most touching scene in an Arizona courtroom a few days ago-that of a son, a lawyer, defending his father, who was charged with the crime of murder. The father of Assistant City Attorney Callen, of San Diego, Cal. recently shot and killed a man, as he claimed, in self-defense. The son took charge of his father's case and went into Arizona to defend him. He is known as one of the most eloquent lawyers in Southern California, and that in the defense of his father his elequence did not lorsa'te him, is well shown by this little extract from his plea before the jury.

Woodward, now of the Locks, occupied that positson. A man was brought before him for larceny, and the evidence being clear he was fined $100 or fifty days in jail. Mr. Wm. Magill, a son of J. R. Magill, ering the matter, Justice Woodward came to the conclusion that he must take the prisoner to that point. Shouldering his rifle he forced the culprit to lead, and so convey him to the destined place. When he arrived at Vancouver he was informed that that was a military post, and the offi-Revival meetings are being held in the Methodist church in this city. They will be continued during the week.

His Head Sawed in Two ASTORIA, Dec. 7 .- Fritz Johnson, a 12year-old son of Mrs. Johnson, residing in the vicinity of the Astoria Packing Company's cannery, met with a frightful death this afternoon. He was in Holt's mill gathering sawdust. In one part of the mill is an edger saw, part of it above and the greater part below the surface of the table Not remembering anything of the swiftly revolving saw over his head, he raised up quickly.

One of the workmen in another part of the room heard a smothered cry and a peculiar grating noise. Rushing to the spot, he found the prostrate form of the unfortunate lad spattered with blood from a hideous laceration of the head, the upper half of the head having been sawed off. The inan-imate form of the child was removed to the house of the heart-broken mother.
